Chair Jarvis noted the Trustee of the Trust Funds are paid once, at the end of the year. She stated usually software licenses are paid by now. She stated the draft audit report has not been made available yet. Mr. Swenson stated there are some outstanding issues and they are waiting for additional information from the Town Clerk and Finance Manager. Chair Jarvis noted that overall, the accounts are in good shape.

Chair Jarvis noted the legal fees for this year were increased across the departments; numerous investigations were conducted with various departments and these required legal review. There was extensive discussion about legal fees. The committee agreed more details and a breakdown between the departments or 91A requests, would be helpful.

Chair Jarvis stated all wage raises of 2023 have been reflected in the respective budgets.

 Chair Jarvis stated she has concerns about the Fire Department budget; she noted the internet costs for the Community Room are being charged to this account but perhaps should not be. She stated Monday through Friday, 10 hours per day coverage was approved for the Fire Department and no details have been provided for scheduling and staffing as requested; she stated she would like the data to support the expenditures to date.

The committee discussed the Building Inspector's Clerical position; Chair Jarvis noted it is a part-time position currently being covered by various individuals. Mr. Swenson noted the hours for the administrative assistant were recently increased to help in the Finance department; he explained the Board of Selectmen is also looking into a finance software upgrade.

Chair Jarvis stated a new Emergency Management Director was hired in the Spring but 85% of the budget is remaining.

Chair Jarvis questioned why 4315 didn't fund the street lights. Mr. Ross-Raymond suggested looking into replacing all the lights with LED.

The committee reviewed the reports from Solid Waste, Parks and Recreation as well as the Library.

Chair Jarvis noted the Town had to take a Tax Anticipation Note last year, however, it was paid off before the end of December.

The committee reviewed the 2023 revenue report as well as a comparison to FY 2022 revenues.
