Meeting

Commissioner Skinner informed everybody that the purpose of the meeting was for appointing commissioners only. The Village monthly meeting will be on Thursday, October 4, 2018 to discuss all other business.

NHMA attorney Stephen Buckley said that Virginia Skinner's appointment as Commissioner by Commissioner Corey Bisson was legal. Commissioner Skinner then announced that she had received Corey Bisson's resignation letter.

In order to cover all bases and for the comfort of the villagers, Commissioner Skinner asked Steve Mraz and Chris Gibbs (both former Commissioners) to attend the meeting to facilitate the change.

Commissioner Skinner asked Mr. Mraz and Mr. Gibbs if they appoint her as a Commissioner. They did. Commissioner Skinner accepted the appointment.

Steve Mraz presented his letter of resignation. Commissioner Skinner accepted his resignation.

Commissioner Skinner and Chris Gibbs appointed Laurene Todd as a Commissioner. Laurene accepted the appointment.

Chris Gibbs submitted his resignation. Commissioner Skinner accepted his resignation.

Commissioner Skinner informed the group that we welcome resumes or letters of interest for a third Commissioner.

Pat Grant asked who we spoke to at NHMA. Commissioner Skinner wanted to know who Ms. Grant spoke with as well. Ms. Grant said she spoke with Matt Upton, not of NHMA, regarding questions she had. Commissioner Skinner informed Ms. Grant that Stephen Buckley was our contact at NHMA.

Commissioner Skinner informed the group that NHMA will only speak to Village Officials, not the general public. It was clarified that NHMA is a service that we pay an annual fee for to have general legal questions answered.
