

TOWN OF NEW DURHAM ETHICS POLICY

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this code is to establish guidelines for the ethical behavior of the conduct for public servants.

We expect our public servants and volunteers to act in the best interest of the town.

- We expect public servants to disclose any personal, financial, material or substantial interests in matters affecting the town which come before them for action, excluding trivial or transient interests which are the natural result of living in a small town.
- We expect public servants to remove themselves from decision making if they have a conflict of interest.
- We expect public servants to be independent, impartial, and responsible to their fellow townspeople in their actions.
- We expect that the town's official decisions and policies be made through the proper channels of government.
- We expect that public servant positions in our town not be used for personal gain.

It is important that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government and that town public servants have an opportunity to protect their personal reputation.

This policy establishes a committee that will develop procedures by which one may obtain guidance and education regarding potential ethical issues. This committee hears inquiries and advises individuals. The Ethics Committee will provide non-binding responses to inquiries. All complaints will be handled by the Board of Selectmen.

The following conditions shall be met:

(v) No public servant shall use, or attempt to use, his/her position as a public servant to obtain any financial gain, contract, license, privilege or other private or personal advantage, direct or indirect, for the public servant or any person or firm associated with the public servant.

(vi) No public servant shall coerce, by intimidation, threats, or otherwise, any other public servant to engage in political activities.

(vii) No public servant shall request any subordinate public servant to participate in a political campaign. For the purposes of this provision, participation in a political campaign shall include managing or aiding in the management of a campaign, soliciting votes or canvassing voters for a particular candidate, or performing any similar acts which are unrelated to public servant's duties or responsibilities.

use town property, including, but not limited to, telephones, facsimile machines, vehicles, and computers, for electioneering, unless such use is available to residents and taxpayers on equal terms.

(ix) No public servant shall receive compensation for performing any official duty except from the town or a grant preapproved by the Office of Selectmen.

B. A Duty to Recuse

Conflicts of interest apply to both quasi-judicial and legislative actions and may warrant the disqualification of a board member in deciding the matter. Ultimately the decision to recuse or not to recuse is up to the individual with the alleged conflict. Information gained through general knowledge as a citizen of the town, or solely as the result of the individual's service in an official capacity, does not disqualify the member unless it has biased the member to such a degree that he or she cannot be impartial. The type of decision (quasi-judicial vs. legislative), not the type of board, is the primary factor for possible disqualification.

(i) A "quasi-judicial action" is any action where the board acts like a judge or jury to decide a matter affecting specific individuals. For example, members are involved in a quasi-judicial action when the board has a duty to notify the potential parties, hear the parties, and decide the matter only after considering and weighing such evidence and arguments as the parties choose to present. Not only do public servants of the Town of New Durham have a duty to recuse themselves as outlined in Section A, but they must also recuse themselves in a quasi-judicial action if they would not be qualified to sit as a juror in that case (RSA 673:14 and 46:6). Stricter standards of fairness tend to be applied by the courts in cases where a board is acting judicial and must demonstrate impartiality.

(ii) A legislative action is administrative in nature and involves a matter affecting all citizens equally. For example, members are acting in a legislative capacity when they set goals, create policies, develop rules, and regulations, research and write amendments, and tend to other procedural matters. Here the need to recuse is more the exception than the rule.

C. A Duty to Disclose

A public servant should make every effort to disclose a possible appearance of a conflict of interest. In any instance where there is a conflict of interest or there could be the appearance of a conflict of interest, a public servant shall disclose the circumstances prior to the time the matter arises for official consideration or discussion, stating all:

- investments or other private transactions
- interests
- relationships
- friendships
- possible conflicts

D. No Unfair Personal Use of Town Property

No public servant shall use town property, services, or labor personally, or make the same available to them unless such use is available to other residents and taxpayers upon request on equal terms.

E. No Misuse of Confidential Information

No public servant shall use any confidential information acquired by virtue of that individual's official position for personal benefit, or for the benefit of any other person or business. This does not apply to information which is readily available to the general public. In addition, no public servant shall violate the privacy of others by publicizing, gossiping, or discussing information confidentially acquired in the course of official duties without a legitimate reason to do so.

F. No Improper Gifts

No public servant shall accept a gift (or allow acceptance of such gift by an immediate family member) from any individual, group, or corporation which have or are planning to have a matter pending before the board on which the public servant serves. This provision of the code is not meant to apply to gifts traditionally exchanged between immediate family members, at holidays or birthdays, for example.

G. Fair and Equal Treatment

Acting in their official capacity, all public servants shall give each and every person fair and equal treatment. No public servant shall in the course of their official duties give or deny any person special consideration, advantage, or treatment as a result of the person's public status, position, sex, race, religion, creed, sexual orientation, or national origin.

H. No Nepotism

No public servant shall influence or attempt to influence the appointment, hiring, transfer, suspension, promotion, discharge, assignment, reward, discipline, direction of work, or the adjustment of grievances of an immediate family member. If a proposed appointee is a member of the immediate family of any board member, that member shall remove himself/herself completely from the process.

SECTION III: EXCLUSIONS

A. The provisions of this Code of Ethics shall not be interpreted so as to bar:

- (i) Any public servant who is a resident of the Town of New Durham from fully participating in any Town Meeting;
- (ii) Acceptance of donations for the expressed purpose of financing a political campaign, provided such contributions are reported in accordance with all local, state and federal laws which pertain to such donations;

- (iv) Police officers, fire fighters, and other emergency personnel from acting in the course of their official capacities when responding to emergencies in accordance with the rules and regulations of their departments;
- (v) Supervisors of Town employees from appropriately carrying out personnel policies.

B. Nothing in this policy shall read to prevent a public servant from acting when, due to circumstances beyond the control of the parties, a failure to serve or act would result in the denial of the party's basic right of representation, right to be heard, or denial of some other important due process right, provided that this exception to the policy be as narrowly drawn as possible and last as short a time as possible.
